

Ng Wing Pui, Stephen

My Neighbourhood

Now I am going to tell you something about my neighbourhood.

My neighbourhood is an old estate, Shek Wai Kok, this is a wonderful estate. There are many different public facilities, schools and restaurants. I study in this “ancient” but historical school named Ho Chuen Yiu Primary School. Although this school is very old, every weekend we have technicians to come in to repair and renovate, so it’s looking like a new school to me.

Next, let me tell you about the best restaurant in my neighbourhood. All the food is very tasty. I am glad I found it. I eat in the restaurant almost every day. My father and mother go to the restaurant, too. My classmates and I love the restaurant very much and of course, the restaurant loves us all.

Then, I will tell you about our facilities. There are benches for us to have a rest when we are tired. There are elevators to help us move easily and quickly. I think the facilities make the old people move around easily, that’s good!

There is real human interest in this place. Let me tell you some of our experience. One day, I went to a bakery to buy some delicious pastry but I forgot to bring enough money. I was at a loss. At this moment, Sean came in and paid for me. I was moved. It's good to have friends living around. I think Shek Wai Kok is the best place for me.

Yet, my friend, Peter, had a very different experience. He went to a shop to buy some food and drinks. But, like me, he didn't bring enough money. He was so afraid the shopkeeper would scold him, but he was wrong. The shop-keeper smiled. He only said, "Come again. Bring enough money next time. I know who you are. Don't worry now." He felt very grateful but alert. He ran home and came back with enough money in no time. He understood that since we all know each other in this neighbourhood, we mustn't make any mistakes.

Still, I think Shek Wai Kok is better than any estates in Hong Kong. I hope this estate can grow bigger to hold more people. This is a good estate and living in this estate is a blessing. I hope you can come and join us here too. Shek Wai Kok is the best!